

Worldwhite

If technology is going to improve the world, imagination needs to be boundless. At Sacmi Whiteware we know that machines are not the end-all and be-all, so we offer our customers much more. Expertise and experience from the Group's many companies provide the flexible solutions which inject innovation and so allow optimisation of every single production decision. Our complete lines for ceramic sanitaryware and tableware can thus be tailored to suit any output need, anywhere in the world.
